/ les iconics.

Once upon a time, there was aged parquet.

Now, more than ever, does the spirit of aged parquet bring an extra level of depth to a modern interior. Created from oak, Les Iconics echoes the parquet floors in grand manor houses of old. The use of incredibly unique mechanical and manual procedures results in an exceptional look and feel. Hammered bevels create irregular edges, intense brushing to reproduce an age-old effect, barely detectable traces of saw or scuff marks...

Beneath the genuine charm lies prowess that leaves nothing to chance. Not even your encounter with these exceptional, timeless planks! Appearance, colour, texture... these have all been taken care of in order to lay the very best, ultra-resistant, aged parquet at your feet. Naturally oiled, brushed, or smoked – the rigorous minimalism of our Aged, Rustic, Chevron, or Herringbone will fulfill your greatest desires.

Oak Aged Galanga

Pick a surface.

Aged.

Aged gives every appearance of a sturdy, old parquet, renovated by hand. Its irresistible aesthetics accentuate every single detail of your home.

Use each tiny crack and colour nuance to your advantage with Neroli, Badiane, Galanga, and Massala.

The parquet's depth and warmth comes from ageing the natural wood shade.

Slight traces of sawing.
The surface is hand-scraped,
for an old, crafted effect.
Naturally oiled.

Oak Rustic Bosco

Herringbone or Chevron.

Bring the 19th century back into fashion with Chevron & Herringbone. Adopt the elegance of the early modern age, relevant from Paris to Brussels, stopping by Lausanne!

Two formats, one shade. Choose between different moods and styles. Large knots and discreet irregularities are present for a classic and traditional look.

Herringbone pattern: a typicality of upper-middle class Bruxellois apartments. Planks are cut at a 90° angle and laid perpendicularly to create a zigzag pattern.

Chevron: planks are cut at a 45° angle to create a perfect V-shape.
